How do I know if my student qualifies for Foster Youth Unit (FYU) Services?

If you answer “YES” to any of the following, you can be eligible for Foster Youth services.

- Does the student live with adults other than their parent (s)?
- Is the student a foster child?
- Does the student receive visits from a child protective services social worker?
- Does the student live in a group home?
- Does the student regularly attend court to discuss who they will live with?
- Does the student have an attorney or other court representative who helps determine who they will live with?

Foster Youth Services
California Department of Education
cde.ca.gov

Foster Youth Services Coordinating (FYSC) Programs provide support services to foster children who suffer the traumatic effects of displacement from family and schools and multiple placements in foster care. FYSC Programs have the ability and authority to ensure that health and school records are obtained to establish appropriate placements and coordinate instruction, counseling, tutoring, mentoring, vocational training, emancipation services, training for independent living, and other related services. FYSC Programs increase the stability of placements for foster children and youth. These services are designed to improve the children's educational performance and personal achievement, directly benefiting them as well as providing long-range cost savings to the state.
