Parents/Guardians of Native American Students Making a Commitment to their Children's Education!

Eligibility – Either the Student or one of the parents/grandparents must be on Native American Ancestry/Heritage/Descent. The student must be enrolled in a Long Beach Unified School District School and have a Title VII Student Eligibility Certificate filed with the American Indian Education, Title VII, Program Office. Please note: Eligibility is NOT based upon any minimum blood quantum.

Schedule of Program Activities – California State Standards link Literacy and Visual Arts activities once a month at the Special Projects Training Center.

Tutoring – Students meet once a week, for two hours, with a Fully Credentialed Teacher. The tutor works in conjunction with the Student's Classroom Teacher to ensure academic growth.

Annual Student Recognition Day – Students and their respective Teachers are recognized for accomplishments that they have achieved during the academic year.

Community Partnerships – We partner with other Native American Organizations to enhance Healthy Lifestyles. Students and families are referred for several services depending upon their individual needs/wants.

Parent Committee – Parents and Guardians participate in monthly meetings at the Special Projects Training Center once a month. Potluck is served at 6:00 p.m. Meetings are from 6:15 to 7:15 p.m.

Scholarship Information – Native American High School Students have access to numerous resources to assist in finding funding for higher education.
