With 1 game remaining in the regular season....several unanswered questions remain: In the South, Stephens is clinging to a narrow League lead, while Washington could go from League Champs to out of the playoffs depending upon Thursday's results! The North also has a log-jam as a result of Marshall's forfeiture to Hoover on playing an ineligible player last week....thank you Rams for doing the right thing! Hill & Newcomb match up for the Eastern Title while Franklin holds all the cards in the West!
