

Comprehension Strategy Prompts for Families

Directions: Choose one or two strategies below to help your child better understand a book or passage.

Prior Knowledge- What do you already know about this topic?

Predict- Look at the title, pictures, and skim through the pages. What do you predict this will be about?

Confirm/Revise Predictions- Were you right? Why or why not?

My Questions- What words or ideas are you confused about? What words can you add to your vocabulary list?

Visualize- Can you picture this part happening in your head?

Infer- What do you know that the author didn't say exactly, but that you figured out?

Text Structures- Did the author use cause/effect? Sequencing? Problem/solution? Compare/contrast? Describing?

SUMMARIZING-IMPORTANT 😊
What was this part about? Can you retell just the important parts in your own words? If not, reread (below).

REREAD- IMPORTANT
What part should you reread to understand it better?

Comprehension Strategy Prompts for Families

Directions: Choose one or two strategies below to help your child better understand a book or passage.

Prior Knowledge- What do you already know about this topic?

Predict- Look at the title, pictures, and skim through the pages. What do you predict this will be about?

Confirm/Revise Predictions- Were you right? Why or why not?

My Questions- What words or ideas are you confused about? What words can you add to your vocabulary list?

Visualize- Can you picture this part happening in your head?

Infer- What do you know that the author didn't say exactly, but that you figured out?

Text Structures- Did the author use cause/effect? Sequencing? Problem/solution? Compare/contrast? Describing?

SUMMARIZING-IMPORTANT 😊
What was this part about? Can you retell just the important parts in your own words? If not, reread (below).

REREAD- IMPORTANT
What part should you reread to understand it better?