

Continuing Future Administrators Program

A Professional Development and Promotional Opportunity

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Continuing Future Administrators Program provides additional training to candidates who have completed the Future Administrators Program. Support includes four afternoons of professional development trainings and site support visits by Equity Leadership & Talent Development staff.

The program builds on the pipeline work of Equity Leadership & Talent Development to consistently develop a steady stream of future administrators who are current in district philosophy and practice. The ideal candidate serves in formal leadership roles such as TOSA, Department Chair, Grade Level Leader, Pathway Lead, SBDM, ILT, etc.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- Successful completion of the Future Administrators Program
- A minimum of five years of experience as a teacher, counselor, etc.
- A valid California teaching credential and/or services credential
- A valid California preliminary administrative/supervisory credential
- Demonstrated experience as a teacher-leader, TOSA, counselor, facilitator, program specialist, or other comparable leadership position
- Recommendation and support of current and/or previous supervisors to pursue leadership opportunities
- Commitment to the inclusion of all members of a diverse school community
