DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

The Intermediate Nutrition Services Worker classification is the journey-level classification in the Nutrition Services Worker series and incumbents are more involved in the complex preparation of food and related record-keeping activities. Incumbents are assigned to all levels of school sites or perform journey-level preparation and packaging duties at the central kitchen.

The Senior Nutrition Services Worker classification is the advanced level classification in the Nutrition Services Worker series. Incumbents typically serve as a lead in a division of the central kitchen, remote point of sale at a high school, satellite campus, or a remote service cafeteria at a site with two preparation and service cafeterias.

The Nutrition Services Worker classification performs routine nutrition service preparation, service and cleaning duties at the central kitchen or a school site. This is the entry-level classification in the Nutrition Services Worker series and incumbents may assist in all aspects of nutrition services operations.
