Expected Outcome:

Parents are expected to participate at high rates for conferences, meetings, and workshops that provide opportunities for communication on ways to support students' progress. Parents will be able to provide input on their child's academic goals and progress. Parents of struggling students will participate in Student Success Team meetings and will be supported with school and community resources to support their child's progress. Parents will report 95% positively on CORE survey questions related to parent engagement and involvement.
